So one out of every approximately 10 verses in Hebrews refers to Jesus or to Christ or to the Son of God. I have no idea what a godlike being is and it most certainly is not a biblical term. I agree with what you are saying Mr. Don't ever fritter your life away. ESV Hebrews But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, so that by the grace of God He might taste death for . Inverse 3 David speaks about the night sky, looking at the moon and at all the stars. Did Cain react the way he did? To argue against this established truth only means that the person s going against this truth is caught up in man-made doctrine to which they have been subjected to for an extended period of time.
