He then focuses his energies on a brilliant and persuasive treatment of Luke 15 and shows how the 'Jacob Saga' of Genesis informed the dramatic framework of Jesus' most famous parable. Bailey's take on the story of the Prodigal son is intriguing, and well worth the study. Matthew Johnson rated it it was amazing Jan 20,

Serious students of the parables of Jesus should be acquainted with the previous work of Kenneth Bailey on the Lukan parables in general, and on Luke 15 in particular. Industry Reviews

"Jacob and the Prodigal is excellently written, very readable, filled with a spirit of reverence for the great subject it talks about and replete with the scholarly nuggets of the Near-Eastern expert that nobody else can provide at this time. Apollos Old Testament Commentary

Whatarethesimilaritiesbetweenthesetwostories?Bystudyingtheparable is undoubtedly right that there is more of the full-orbed gospel of redemption in this parable than first meets the eye.
