There were wars, to be sure, but aside from the Prussian invasion of France in the wars were mostly fought in far off places as the European empires attempted to solidify and expand their colonial holdings. Perhaps there was a strategic awareness on the part of Illies; understanding that there are moments in history that are ripe for close exploration. We are committed to providing each customer with the highest standard of customer service. Intriguing and often witty, if bitty. There are readers who are thrilled by historical fiction, and for whom the invented hat-tipping in the park will be the primary pleasure. Geoffrey Macnab. Both seem equally likely.
