You need a practice pad of some kind on a stand of appropriate height, and a drum stool of an appropriate height. That does seem like a great way for him to stay motivated to learn. Maintain a positive attitude. This will keep drumming fun if you spend time. I also believe that number 7 would be good for beginners since they can bring it with them at all times and therefore manage to squeeze in as much practice as possible. Take advantage of these resources and stay motivated by watching different drummers young and old, male and female.
