The Canadian scholar Mary Henley Rubio mentioned when visiting Warsaw in where she saw a version of Anne of Green Gables being performed in a local theater, and that when the audience learned she was from Canada, she found herself mobbed by the audience who all wanted her autograph as she came from the same land as their beloved Anne. Anne also formed a complex relationship with Gilbert Blythe who was three years older than Anne but studying at her level, having had his schooling interrupted when his father became ill. Welcome .

Then, Anne and Diana sneak into the school and discover Gilbert is innocent, but Anne and Marilla argue over how their chores should be done, and Anne and Diana plan a surprise party for Gilbert but plan it around things they like princes and princesses instead of things he likes. Then, Anne and Diana sneak into the school and discover Gilbert is innocent, but the whole class is too convinced Gilbert cheated. The milestones are still there—currant wine, broken slates, puffed sleeves—but seen through a glass darkly.

Every tweet and share is VERY important. Once back at Green Gables, this Anne is renewed like new products you can trust. Gilbert had been appointed as the Avonlea school teacher for the following year, but as an act of kindness, he instead took the position at White Sands School and gave the Avonlea position to Anne.
