No citation is given. For instance, Bruno's involvement with Copernicus occurred because he needed more accurate astronomical calculations for his astrological work. Red-hued events are in red; the remainder are in yellow.

Giordano Bruno's De Umbris Idearum. At the beginning, the Copernican theory was relegated to the level of a simple hypothesis, which was suitable for calculations, but which did not correspond to the real structure of the world. Bruno is a great sensitive: dipped in the Universe, he thinks to Thought able to knock down the barrier between human and divine, even if this knowledge still remains shady.

There were Gnostic sects that, you see because the idea was that light was trapped. History Renaissance titles from eBooks. They said my head was turning, not the earth, because they were afraid of the giddiness that my thought caused .
