Of the second sort, noted for their difficulty, and that will not be acquainted with us but upon further suit, some are hard through their fulness of matter in fewness of words, as the poetical books, Later other Jews joined them though most remained in their places of exile.

HismessageisfilledwiththeencouragementthatGodwillkeepHispromisest We must reject, therefore, the view of some of the " orthodox " commentators that this last section traverses the ground already trodden in the previous. The northern kingdom of Israel is scattered all over the Assyrian empire, and later Babylonia conquers the southern kingdom of Judah and basically takes the people out of Judah though not all of them, certainly the leading people and settles them in Babylonia. He allowed the Jews to rebuild the Temple of Jerusalem and it was finished in BC 520. He issued his decree that the Jews and all other captive peoples could return to their respective homelands. Moreover, it may with justice be claimed that the alleged authors of chapters dissociate themselves from any definitely named person or any specific event known to be pre-exilic.
