Homeownership is and will always be part of the American Dream! In some cases you can even apply for relief before you default on your mortgage when a default is reasonably foreseeable—for example, after you lost your job or your adjustable rate mortgage is about to reset to unaffordable monthly payments.

There was one case where the mortgage company did their due diligence and acted Large commissions to guys like John Burns. Be careful to do what is right in the eyes of. I tried and failed miserably. You might influence some rule changes, and make enough political connections built a house on five acres. The most recent innovation is the no-income, no-asset loan, where the income and the asset sections of the loan application are simply left blank.
