Remember how bullish everyone was a mere month ago? There is something about this current version of Liverpool FC that transmits a beautifully reassuring aura of simplicity. I think Talbot is a bit better than you suggest. Rule to live by for perhaps? It has won me three national championships and countless medals. There have been some big calls to make this summer and there are still potentially a few more to be made before the transfer window finally clicks shut. Most of us way on patents, which makes sense.
