If you keep coming back to your basic motivation and know where you are going, you stay on track. First we should know that without the Dharma there is no happiness at all.

We can also think of this perfect human rebirth as the key to the door of understanding. This is the Freedom that the Buddha himself experienced in the archetypical story of his Enlightenment. We accept purchase orders from libraries and universities.

By using our precious rebirth in this way, we not only fail to give meaning to our lives, but we also ensure that we will never be completely successful at getting the small, temporary happiness we seek.
