Furthermore, they assumed that Victories and Defeats Viet Minh must want to rush to Laos; surely that was behind their strategy of blocking that route. Known as the Forage War, this period was noted for several small engagements in which Washington's troops attempted to keep British soldiers from securing hay for horses and livestock, in addition to other provisions.

I've had some wins. Thank to those masks, they went on to win the battle. Following fierce fighting between Lord Charles Cornwallis and Continental troops at the Battle of Second Trenton, George Washington skillfully disengaged along his position at Assunpink Creek during the evening of January 2nd, in order to attack the British post at Princeton, New Jersey the following morning. Unfortunately, a large British force succeeded in scaling the heights close to the fort Victories and Defeats
