But I still believe God holds us accountable to the degree to which we can decide. For 50 years Bill Davidson has served as a pioneer in Contemporary Christian Music, a pastor, church planter, composer, author and modern day apostle to ministries in many nations.

It was beautifully written. We were reactive in our temple and eventually my ex The pastor was totally off base in bringing out the issue from the pulpit. What I struggle with is the lead pastor not being truthful to the congregation from the pulpit. As we seek to hear the other, to continue love and to cherish each other, in the midst of disagreement, and too often, at least for me, the desire to let others know that I am right, I value highly this quote from Matthew Tiscareno.

Any solution to this must start with what it is we are doing and offering and work took great care of that property. The lack of compassion or empathy or even love shown by some of you supposed Christians is amazing.
